This is what I found while playing with TDB songs:

Beginning of high Hopes. Other birds are to be heard than the normal speed birds.
<http://www.cieltanner.ch/publius/hh-birds.mp3>

I slowed down the music to 8000Hz and removed some noise.

The same strange sound seems to be embedded in Marooned. I hear whales...

<http://www.cieltanner.ch/publius/marooned-whales.mp3>

I'm not a sound engineer, but it looks like many things can be hidden in a song.

This needs further investigation...

And now, what seems to be the word ENIGMA!

Take it back, 0:08:19 - 0:08:26, 16000Hz (8 sec after start)

I wonder if those birds are voices? I hear them, they sound like doves.

Are the whales the slowed down sea gulls?

Are you sure that's 8:19-8:26 on TIB?

Mine is only 6:12 in length

Anyway, it sounds like another song slowed down. I can hear a drum beat and what sounds like "Publius Enigma" twice, the second time in a woman's whisper. When I slowed it down a little, I hear what sounds like "don't say anything" (woman's whisper voice)

You're right 84. I meant 8 seconds after beginning of TIB.

The whales sound could be the slowed down seagulls, I'm not sure. But the sound pattern seems distinct from the seagulls.

I don't think they are dove. More likely exotic birds. I also hear frogs toward the end of the HH sample.

Maybe as in "Wales England"?

What's the link between your supposition and a "designed solution"?

To me the most striking elements of TDB are references to EYE-AIR-SEA.

Whales (or fishes) are obviously to be associated with the sea. Birds with the air.

I wonder if this is not a reference to IRC channels (Remember Straits-Detroit...)

They are usually found on ports 6666 and 6667.

A possible solution for "The new Gate" or the door waiting to be opened mentioned by Genesis?

Some private channels need a key to enter. Are the numbers or "sums" mentioned by Genesis indications leading to the key? (+k of some Genesis messages?)
